Happy New Year!

As we begin 2017, we enter into the year of the Convocation of Catholic Leaders. We are now only six months away from this historic gathering. May we use this time to prepare our hearts for the Convocation and pray that 2017 be a year in which the heart of the Church in the United States is enkindled anew by the Holy Spirit.

Detailed registration instructions were sent out via email in November and December. If you haven't received yours, please email convocationregistration@usccb.org or check your automatically filtered inbox folders.

Interested in Being an Exhibitor?

There is still time to apply to be an exhibitor at the Convocation! However, exhibitor space is extremely limited. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis, as space permits. Those applications received by January 31 will be given priority.

Exhibitor registration will open in February for those organizations whose applications have been approved.

Take Advantage of Diocesan Grants and Scholarships!

To date, four generous sponsors have already agreed to provide grants to dioceses looking for financial assistance to bring a delegation to the Convocation. This is a great way to expand and diversify your delegation, at no cost to the diocese.

A note for priests and deacons...

Priests are invited to concelebrate the Masses of the Convocation, and Deacons who wish to vest and sit in a special section for the Masses are also welcome to do so. If you wish to participate in this way or any other sacramental opportunities that may arise, you and your local ordinary will need to complete the Certificate of Aptitude for Priestly Ministry (for Priests) and the Certificate of Aptitude for Diaconal Ministry (for Deacons).

To get these forms, details on how to submit them, and more information on participating, please visit the Convocation’s FAQ's page.
